

30 More Fallacies

Description	Fallacy	Example
9 Bandwagon: Claiming something to be true or accurate simply because most people believe it to be true or accurate. (Similar to Appeal to Tradition.)	9  Bandwagon	Bandwagon: Ninety-three percent of the students surveyed said they believe the tuition spike was to pay for the college president's salary. How could it not be true?
10 Begging the Question: Making a claim that uses a tactic or implied assumption; raises a question by assuming an answer or shared belief.	10  Begging the Question	Begging the Question: The country's moral situation will only get worse if religious attendance doesn't improve. (This statement raises the question: but does church attendance actually improve morality?)
11 Black or White: Suggesting only two alternate conclusions exist when, in reality, several possibilities exist. (Similar to Excluded Middle.)	11  Black or White	Black or White: The United States needs to either triple its production of oil to reduce costs or require automobile manufacturers to make cars that get 75 miles to the gallon. There's no other way the economy can survive with these gas prices.
